

Overview

Depend on one of Colombia's leading law firms in the financial services sector. We are widely recognized for our tremendous success working on behalf of banks, financing providers, borrowers, insurers and investment funds. Our partner-driven approach means that you can rely on senior-level support on the most complex local and multi-jurisdictional transactions and advisory matters. We offer a holistic approach to the financial services sector, covering all issues affecting its participants, including financings, regulatory compliance, bank mergers, litigation, and restructurings and insolvencies.

The financial institutions team advises local and foreign banks and major borrowers on a broad spectrum of financial transactions, including secured and unsecured credit facilities, project finance, debt issuances, acquisition finance, assets financing and leasing, real estate finance, bank regulations and Tier II capital indebtedness, restructurings, and securities market transactions. Our lawyers and professionals regularly advise on financings in a wide range of industry sectors, including oil and gas, mining, telecommunications, infrastructure, aviation, shipping, rail road, manufacturing and real estate.

In the capital markets area, our team is also experienced in local securities transactions, including debt and equity placements, and we regularly assist foreign banks and local and foreign companies with the issuance of notes under US Rule 144A and Regulation S.

Providing you with seamless service, our talented lawyers in our leading dispute resolution and labor practices will also handle financial services litigation and employment disputes in the sector. Our IP department has extensive experience in the local and regional prosecution of IP portfolios on behalf of financial services clients. We also assist with the management of complex IP portfolios by advising on privacy, consumer protection, information and technology, advertisement and promotional matters and regulatory matters.

With global capabilities spanning six continents, rely on us to handle your legal needs wherever your business takes you.
