

Overview

Depend on our veteran real estate team, which handles the full range of commercial real estate and property transactions across Colombia and abroad. Our clients span the full range of participants in Colombia's real estate sector, including local and foreign investors, developers, occupiers, and financial institutions, including banks and private equity players.

We assist with the sale and purchase of real estate assets and the ongoing management of property portfolios. Our team has deep experience working within a range of real estate subsectors, including investment properties, office space, leisure, hotels, residential developments and retail property.

We regularly advise on all aspects related to planning, construction and engineering, direct and indirect investment, real estate M&A, real estate funds, financing structures, tax and real estate development, as well as providing guidance on all related dispute resolution, environmental, and regulatory concerns. We are well versed in the use of innovative and complex transactional structures aimed at helping clients mitigate risk and tax-related implications of their real estate investments, enhancing returns on their transactions.

As a global law firm with a worldwide reach, we are committed to serving the communities we live and work in, reinforcing our entrepreneurial approach to solving problems in today's complex world. Rely on us to handle your legal needs wherever your business takes you.
